Science Council of New York City

December, 2006

Dear Exhibitor:

The 2006 SCONYC Convention at Stuyvesant High School was a success. More than 500 teachers filled the exhibit hall and workshops throughout the course of the day. The convention committee expects, and is planning for a greater turnout for the 30th annual conference on Saturday, April 14, 2007.

As an exhibitor, you will have the opportunity to meet and to speak with metropolitan New York City pre-service and in-service teachers, from elementary through college levels. These educators want and need this convention...and they want to see what your company has to offer. Supervisors will be looking to you for assistance in planning for texts, materials and services to comply with New York State MST (Math/Science/Technology) Learning Standards, Scope and Sequence and the Core Curricula.

Our exhibit hall, the spacious Stuyvesant High School gymnasium, is within a short walk from workshops and meeting rooms. We have coordinated the convention workshops, so that the exhibit viewing will be at its maximum. A newly revised schedule will give you greater opportunity to meet science educators. You will not be disappointed with the number of visitors to your exhibit table(s).

UNDRAPED EXHIBIT TABLES (6 FT X 2 1/2 FT) are available at a low price of $40.00. Please limit the number of persons, involved with your exhibit, to TWO. If you require additional badges, please indicate this on the reservation form. Any member of your exhibit who wish to participate in the convention, please note that there is a small additional fee. To reserve your exhibit table(s), complete the attached reservation form.

DO NOT DELAY!!! Reservations must be received by February 28th 2007 for guaranteed inclusion in the convention booklet and prime exhibit space. Space is limited; reservations may not be accepted after April 7, 2007.

Interested in giving a workshop? Noncommercial exhibitors are encouraged to present workshops; it helps to "sell" your product or services. Interested in advertising in the convention booklet? Enclosure included.

Yours truly,

Dawn L. Campbell
